

Looking Back on Love

Lenny Kravitz

Looking back on love
Through a broken old TV
Looking back on love
But it's kinda hard to see

I'm just try to find
The place where I should be
Yeah yeah, oh oh oh
Looking back on love
Oh yeah

Oh looking back on love
Thought the players have all changed
Looking back on love
Even though we're off the stage

Now again we do with the Feelings we've exchanged
Oh oh yeah, looking back on love
Oh, come on

Looking back on love
And the bad things on the wall
Looking back on love
It is cracked and about to fall

I should be running
Like a a baby has to crawl
Oh yeah yeah, looking back on love
Oh, uh

Looking back on love
Like a rerun in my mind
Looking back on love
But it seems as if I am blind

Holding memories
Like a sun that always shine
Now I need to find a love I can call mine
Oh oh, looking back on love

Oh, yeah

Looking back
Looking back on love

Looking back on love
Wonder if I will survive
Looking back on love
It is time for me to dive

Once I go beneath
Will I finally be alive?
Yeah, looking back on love
Oh oh
