

Fighter

Lenny

Saw you one evening, you walked through the streets all alone
Hands in your pockets and not quite so sure where to go
Your heavenly face all destroyed by a frown, what a shame
The people you knew can no longer remember your name

May lord forgive you for girl you don't know who you are You look like an angel, you're a devil, a devil with a star
You let the world take you, shape you then rip you apart
Now I'm here to fix you, I'll take you right back to the start

Cause I am your fighter
No home, all alone, you can never decide
I'm your fighter
I'm here to be with you and put a little lovin' into your heart

Searching for peace we can leave all the worries behind
I know you might doubt it cuz it's just so far out of sight
Trust me, whenever you wish I'll appear at your door
Now you've got a friend and let's not pretend you don't need me anymore

Cause I am you're fighter
No home, all alone, you can never decide
I'm your fighter
I'm here to be with you and put a little loving into your heart
No home, all alone, you got nowhere to hide
I'm your fighter and it's alright
I'm here to be with you and put a little lovin' into your heart

I'm your fighter...yes your fighter... I'm your fighter, your fight er,
I'm here to be with you and put a little lovin' into your heart
