

Standing at the Corner of Your Heart

Lenny

Going down the road to sunset
You are the hardest part the sweetest thing you're the one
I couldn't be
I am heading down the road I am all alone
I've no best friend no helping hand I've got no cozy home
You're the one I'm looking for I found my missing part
But and I'm still standing at the corner of your heart
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
standing at the corner of your heart

I've been living since the moment we first met
You are the hardest part the sweetest thing
You are the one I couldn't get
I wish your heart would beat beat next to mine
But as long as you don't feel the same I'm just wasting all my time
You're the one I am looking for and I knew it from the start
But I'm still standing at the corner of your heart
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
standing at the corner of your heart
I wait for you tonight ohhhh
standing at the corner of your heart
