

I Will Not Stop Fighting

Leo Sayer

Oh and I can see the sadness in your eyes
Well you shouldn't ever have to cry
Oh I will put you back on your feet again
If you you'll let me try
Oh I will not stop fighting for you
Until the day I day
Oh they know how to shatter your dreams
But this time they've really gone to extremes
They just don't give a damn
About you and me baby
But we will not stop dreaming
Until they set us free
Oh well a change of heart
Leads to a change of time
We shouldn't be here wishing
For a change of mind
I remember when we were just starting out
Your world was lonely, needed mine
So I will not stop fighting for you
Until I run out of time

(solo)

Oh and I want to stay this close to you
And I don't want it to stop, no
Until you feel happy too
No one else will understand
What we're going through
But I will not stop fighting
Until you stop fighting too
Oh well a change of heart
Leads to a change of mind
Shouldn't be here wishing
For a change of time
Oh I remember when we were just starting out
Your world was lonely, needed mine
So, I will not stop fighting for you
Until I run out of time
