

On the Old Dirt Road

Leo Sayer

I'm on the old dirt road
Without a care
Gotta sixpence in my pocket
Oh I'm a millionaire
Oh and I would do anything to go back there
On the old dirt road
Oh my brother and me
We make a mess all weekend
'Til Sunday eve
Oh and I am travelling through the past
Oh and I can see myself
Face to face in the looking glass
Playing in the dust
I haven't got a care
And nobody makes a fuss
'Cos there's no one there
On the old dirt road
I got no name
Build a castle wall
And knock it down again
Oh and I am a child again
Oh and I have no need to pretend
Oh I hear you cry
Go back to sleep
But I can't make it stop
'Cos it's not a dream
Playing in the dust
I haven't no cares
And nobody makes a fuss
'Cos there's no one there
I'm a millionaire

(solo)

On the old dirt road
I'm a millionaire
Gotta sixpence in my pocket
I haven't got a care
On the old dirt road
I ain't got no name
I build a castle wall
And knock it down again
Oh and I would do anything to go back there again
Oh and I
I'm a child again
