

'Til You Let Your Heart Win

Leo Sayer

I could love you but you're hard to touch
Standing by you I have seen so much
Ain't it funny how I found the one
But you pull back to protect a heart born to run
Passion begs you to oblige them all
Love escapes you and you watch them fall
Giving nothing you are left to bleed
Will you ever recognize I know what you need

I want to hold you tight
Give you the rest of my life
You are my heaven
The river flows to the sea
Like you could reach out to me
But I can get in
Till you let your heart win

Dressed in silence
To disguise the pain
Pure emotion doesn't know your name
Love still haunts you
Please don't turn away
I'm with you if you care
Oh you know, things will change

Cause I want to hold you tight
And give you the rest of my life
You are my heaven
The river flows to the sea
Like you could reach out to me
But love can get in
Till you let your heart win
(You let your heart win)
Till let your heart win

Oh let it win
Let your heart win baby
Please give in
Let your heart win baby
Try and give in, try and give in
Let your heart
Let your heart win
