

Time Ran Out on You

Leo Sayer

You feel there's enough
You try because you do get lonely
And hearts feel too much
And right now you know you're only blue
'Cos time ran out on you
Well that's tough
And so you try to steal the feeling
Back when you touch
A touch too much just starts you reeling now
You start to reason how
You know you do
'Cos time ran out on you
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh, time
Ran out on you
You keep holding on
You know it's wrong but you can't let go
And here comes tonight
You say the situation's not your style
You linger for a while
That's what you do
'Cos time ran out on you
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh, time
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, time
You just don't feel right
And you pretend to be sincere
But nothing is clear
You're not sincere
You're not sincere

(solo)

You still don't feel right
And you have no intention to be left standing by
You say the situation's not your style
So you linger for a while
That's what you do
'Cos time ran out on you
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh, time
Ran out on you
Hey, time
Ran out on you
