

Forgive You

Leon Bridges

Did I not love enough to keep your attention on and on?
Am I the stupid one for doing everything that I did for us?

I put a pillow under your hair
Gave you tender love and my care
And I didn't make it a thing
Your momma didn't know that I was there
I tried to swallow my pride
When you're left me on the outside
And I didn't know you would never show
You're so comfortable with white lies
Lookin' like a fool
What else could I do?
After all we've been through it still hurts

But I forgive you though my friends tell me not to
I forgive you even when it's so hard to

When we are good we're great
But I couldn't keep carrying all this weight
Won't ever be the same
But I'd rather know you're better off than when you left us

I put a pillow under your hair
Gave you tender love and my care
And I didn't make it a thing
Your momma didn't know that I was there
You know, I tried to swallow my pride
When you're left me on the outside
And I didn't know you would never show
You're so comfortable with white lies
Lookin' like a fool
What else could I do?
After all we've been through it still hurts

But I forgive you though my friends tell me not to
I forgive you even when it's so hard to, yeah
Maybe we can get together someday
But I want you to know we're okay, we're okay
But I want you to know we're okay, we're okay

I forgive you though my friends tell me not to
I forgive you even when it's so hard to, I had to yeah
Maybe we can get together someday
But I want you to know we're okay
Uh uh
