

Light As The Breeze

Leonard Cohen

She stands before you naked you can see it, you can taste it, and she comes to you light as the breeze.
Now you can drink it or you can nurse it, it don't matter how you worship as long as you're down on your knees.

So I knelt there at the delta,
at the alpha and the omega, at the cradle of the river and the seas.
And like a blessing come from heaven for something like a second I was healed and my heart was at ease.

O baby I waited
so long for your kiss for something to happen, oh something like this.

And you're weak and you're harmless and you're sleeping in your harness and the wind going wild in the trees,
and it ain't exactly prison but you'll never be forgiven for whatever you've done with the keys.

O baby I waited ...

It's dark now and it's snowing O my love I must be going,
The river has started to freeze.
And I'm sick of pretending I'm broken from bending I've lived too long on my knees.

Then she dances so graceful and your heart's hard and hateful and she's naked
but that's just a tease.
And you turn in disgust from your hatred and from your love and comes to you
light as the breeze.

O baby I waited ...

There's blood on every bracelet
you can see it, you can taste it, and it's Please baby
please baby please.
And she says, Drink deeply, pilgrim but don't forget there's still a woman beneath this resplendent chemise.

So I knelt there at the delta,
at the alpha and the omega,
I knelt there like one who believes.
And the blessings come from heaven and for something like a second I'm cured and my heart is at ease.
