

Let Go

Leslie Clio

Never knew that love could hurt me never knew that i could cry
I believed in happy endings till the day you said "Goodbye"

By now i try, you say "no"
i could give, but i know...
i have let go...
let go...

Got so tired of pretending going nowhere by your side how can i know what it feels like i don't live inside your mind

But now i try, you say "no"
i could give, but i know...
i have let go...
let go...

I want it sparkle, i want it so letting you lead out worst one more place to go i want it easy...see what you blow but in no happy ending, i be released and so

But now i try, you say "no"
i could give, but i know...
i have let go...
let go...

let go...

let go...

let go...

let go...

let go...
