

Only a Fool Breaks His Own Heart

Leslie Clio

Why do I keep fooling myself
When I know you love someone else?
Only a fool breaks his own heart
I pretend that I don't see
When you walk with her down the street
Only a fool breaks his own heart

I have to admit it
Even though you hurt me so, boy
I can't forget it
If I'm a girl I let you go
It's no use trying to hang on
To a love already gone
Only a fool breaks his own heart

I have to admit it
Even though you hurt me so boy
I can't forget it
If I'm a girl I let you go
It's no use trying to hang on
To a love already gone
Only a fool breaks his own heart
Only a fool breaks his own heart
Only a fool breaks his own heart
