

Can't Yell Any Louder

Less Than Jake

(Hey!) (Hey!)

When I look at the person in the mirror
I see the picture and it's clear
An unshaved face that will always remain
Standing still I'm running in one place

When I talk to myself about my future coming true
I tell myself "Tonight is mine, so hold my head up high"
I'm never moving backwards
I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder

(Hey!) When I see a reflection in the mirror
I see a person that's disappeared
A stranger's face that's slowly changed
Slightly worn but rearranged

When I talk to myself about my future coming true
I tell myself "Tonight is mine, so hold my head up high"
I'm never moving backwards
I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder

I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder
I don't think I can yell any louder

(Hey!) (Hey!) (Hey!)
