

I won't change the world with a song perhaps it's futile to comment on a revolution somewhere else

I won't change the world with these words but it's just like me to observe the dissolution somewhere

The war of locked minds has subsided to these very different times with the burning conflicts smothered who will throw in a match from behind, yeah

I won't change the sway of politics but if I could I just might pick a revolution somewhere else won't change the sway of government the choice was made and lives were spent on dissolution somewhere

Prepare and defend as history storms in once again whether we want it or not a change is what we've got it's what we've got, yeah
