Less Than Jake

Remember when you had all the answers?
Nothing else even mattered
It was just you, and you alone
And you can feel it in your bones

You didn't need to be told
What to believe
(What to believe)
You didn't need to let go
At lightning speed

Remember when you stopped short of surrender?
And you never say never
But it's the truth, you didn't know
Between the now and what's unknown

You didn't need to be told
What to believe
(What to believe)
And you realized on your own
At lightning speed

The skeptics never make it through the static
Automatic
Your desperate techniques to shake the stone [?]
The skeptics never make it through the static
Automatic
Step to the edge and take the jump
Step to the edge and take the jump
Whooooaaa
Step to the edge and take the jump

You didn't need to be told
What to believe
(What to believe)
You didn't need to let go
At lightning speed

The skeptics never make it through the static
Automatic
Your desperate techniques to shake the stone [?]
The skeptics never make it through the static
Automatic
Step to the edge and take the jump
Step to the edge and take the jump
Whooooaaa
Step to the edge and take the jump
