

Life Led Out Loud

Less Than Jake

First let me get
This off my chest
There's a few times
I wanna lost the map
Take it all back and forget

Now let me trace
My younger days
My best mistakes
Were the one's I'd never trade, never fade or replace

Drag the skeletons out forever model them down(?)
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Drag the skeletons out forever model them down(?)
Welcome to my life lived out loud

The hows and whys
Oh who am I?
They made me think
I was invincible, invisible through my eyes
I never cared, and was never scared
When the consequence and the punishment was all that's left
Ringing in my ears

Drag the skeletons out forever model them down(?)
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Throw all the secrets out and take the words from my mouth
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Welcome to my life lived out loud

Welcome to my life lived out loud
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Whoa, whoa
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Whoa, whoa
Welcome to my life lived out loud
Whoa (6x)
