

The Loudest Songs

Less Than Jake

Misguided
And misaligned
Old habits I've been leaning on in my lifetime
So before though they cut the ties
They left me

I told stories
A steady stream of songs
About summer, my surrender, and where I belong
Best friends that have come and gone
They left me

Do you really think summer can save us?
Do you think the loudest songs can be the cure?
I believe it's possible that words and chords can make us strong
And make you feel alive, the loudest songs

One-sided
Mistakes of mine
Only worries I've needed my whole lifetime
Lesson learned or passing by
They left me

I told stories
A steady stream of songs
About summer, my surrender, and where I belong
Best friends that have come and gone
They left me

Do you really think summer can save us?
Do you think the loudest songs can be the cure?
I believe it's possible that words and chords can make us strong
And make you feel alive, the loudest songs

Don't take your chances
Bring it alright [?]
Don't take your chances

Do you really think summer can save us?
Do you think the loudest songs can be the cure?
I believe it's possible that words and chords can make us strong
And realize that you belong
And make you feel alive, the loudest songs
The loudest songs
The loudest songs
