

Theme Song for H Street

Less Than Jake

You know my best friend,
just left yesterday, and I know.
I know your girlfriend,
wasn't here to stay,
she just moved away.

Things are so the same.
And all I really care,
bring myself to say is that I know.
That I know, that I know.
And remember when they said,
just how long can your ideas
keep you warm, and
We just laughed that kind of nervous laugh.
We just sang along to that song that's on the radio.
To that song on the radio.

And, yea, just outside,
the conversation's getting old.
I know they're right,
Betting smokes that our end is just as close

Things are so the same.
And all I really care,
bring myself to say is that I know.
That I know, that I know.
And remember when they said,
just how long can your ideas
keep you warm, and
We just laughed that kind of nervous laugh.
We just sang along to that song that's on the radio.
To that song on the radio.

And you were right about,
Just how we'd figure out,
things change, but beliefs stay the same
You were right about (woah-oh)
Just how we'd figure out, (woah-oh)
a change of ideas, I know.
That I know, that I know-oh-woah, that I know-oh-oh-oh.
And remember when they said,
just how long can your ideas
keep you warm, and
We just laughed that kind of nervous laugh.
We just sang along to that song that's on the radio.
To that song on the radio.
To that song....on the radio.
