

Lost In Grief

Lethian Dreams

Silence... again in a dark day
I seem so cold... behind your pain
No matter now... together we fade

You will forget all my mistakes
Under this rain waits your shelter
You will forget my existence
Until you cry for someone else
Whatever walk... never return

Tell me that you hate me...
...open your eyes I make you cry
Fear me...scare me again...
...cause you are my loneliness
Coldness, emptiness, suffer again...
...all that remains
Never give me your heart...
...stay alone that's real life
Autumnal tears don't stop falling...
...all on your skin
Distress of your being...
...results of my cruelty
We fall deeper you know...
...how we suffer
Maybe should we think...
...of end it all...

Can't close my eyes even in dark
All this sad void makes think of you
Can't remember even with light
All this feelings are so grievous
Whatever hope... is futile now

Silence... again in a dark day
I seem so cold... behind your pain
No matter now... together we fade
