

Requiem

Lethian Dreams

Take me to your lands

Hear them sing as they witness my defeat

This overwhelming stream, almost tangible void

Highest flames weep their words

Be my forsaken, crawl the roads in vain

Eyes staring at the mournful horizon

No betrayal, I drown in the forever closure of light

With infinite void I am one

Be my forsaken, crawl the roads in vain

Eyes staring at the mournful horizon

In this precious moment, where the unknown reveals

A requiem for my soul sings the eternal rest of my heart
