

Taking Away My Sanity

Lethian Dreams

Dust in this night
Goes down my throat
And wind blows stronger

I'm feeling like
Behind four walls
In this place I suffer

On my hands you couldn't see
All the scars I made for you
In my eyes you couldn't feel
That my life was passing by...

This is where my life ends
Intoxicated by my yearn to die
To join you once again
Your life.. I did take..

This is where my life ends

The blade slices deeper
Taking away my sanity

Now everything is dead
But my state of madness
I wash away
The sand of your skin
And it feels you're mine again

On my hands you couldn't see
All the scars I made for you
In my eyes you couldn't feel
That my life was passing by...
