

White Gold

Lethian Dreams

For only once the sky gathered
As white gold
The leaden silence of the earth
As leaf mod
It remains inside our eyes
Remains inside...

For only once the sky gathered
As white gold
The morning burnt echoed the thirst
Of this end foretold
It remains inside our eyes
Remains inside

Along the path, a white gold silence
Along the path, a white gold earth
Along the path, a white gold silence
Along the path, a white gold heart
