

Enemies [Enemigos]

letlive.

Y si me encuentras sangrando llamo los vampiros
Ay mi hijos

If I started bleeding today
Call up every vampire you know
I just wanted all my children, all my kids to know that..

If we are the faithful living, then we are the grateful dead

Put me in the bed and give me what I want
I'm tired of the mattress we use it too often
And I will wait for it
I'll put you in the bed if that's what you want
Use your body to hammer the nails in my coffin
And I will wait for it

If we're playing musical chairs
On the decks of titanic's you know
All of us are racing for the seat nailed to the bow
And I want all my kids to know that When I started drowning today
Everyone was diving in to know

If we are the faithful living, then we are the great
