

Homeless Jazz

letlive.

you are the product of a prodigal son every other person wants to take on my son acquit every little birdy on jailbird street they'll walk the walk with both damn feet they know..laugh with me can you walk like me?

can we both burn?

in a world so full of it it's only a waste of my time but we love them anyway yes we love them

I am the father of the prodigal son never had I thought I would compete for my son but he met another birdy on jailbird street said she could walk with both left feet, she said 'you are the body? well, oh. I rock the body well.'
'let's have it out and we'll shake this old cell'
'you rock the body? well go on and rock the body well'
'let's have it out and shake this whole town' now kill the army and I'll send them all to hell because they know what I did I swear, I swear I will let me kiss my momma because I'm going straight to hell daddy knows what I did

...do it again.

if we both burn. both of us can learn to...
