

That Fear Fever

letlive.

Spitting image of all that is black imagery
We scream the loudest while saying nothing
The spiting image of anonymity Who screams the loudest while saying nothing you.

When you terrorize and profit
they will consider it a revolution
That is a very thin line; I'll walk it
A system anarchy might understand

Cause a comfort in being scared when you're the only one who dares
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so they know
Cause there's a comfort in being scared when you're the only one who dared
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so they know it was me

To be American is to profit and by any means Yeah money talks but I think it's bluffing The virtue of a man is so much greater when When he ain't got shit, ain't got a thing to lose

When you terrorize and profit
they will consider it a revolution
That is a very thin line; I'll walk it
A system anarchy might understand

Cause a comfort in being scared when you're the only
one who dares
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so
they know
Cause there's a comfort in being scared when you're the only one who dared
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so
they know it was me

So start the fire with me, but don't burn down our precious home (2x)
So with the tools you get to start that fire, don't burn down your home (2x)

Cause a comfort in being scared when you're the only
one who dares
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so
they know
Cause there's a comfort in being scared when you're the
only one who dared
To make the gun smoke black in a white washed town so they know it was me
