Obvious

Have you ever felt like, you the only one in love in your relationship? And as hard as it was to let go, you knew it was the best thing for you Well that time has come for me, I gotta move on

You say you wanna get married, but boy are you sure Cause there are a couple of issues I refuse to ignore You say one thing, and you do another And Im realizing you don't want me on your shoulder You think material things is what I need But all I ever wanted was you Just a little kiss, just a little hug Now Im realizing that that ain't your kinda love

Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious You're not changing and I know that you love me but This thing ain't going the way I planned Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious As bad as I want you to stay We can't keep going on this way Going this way

Don't think you're doing me no favors Feeling the need to get on one knee When you know you ain't right baby You wanna make sure Im always around And with the ring on my finger That means Im on right now I see it in your eyes you weren't There's a good chance you doing some dirt Cause I don't wanna be the one To make you do something you don't want to Im gonna let you do you

Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious You're not changing and I know that you love me but This thing isn't going the way I planned Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious As bad as I want you to stay We can't keep going on this way Going this way

See there's a part of me That doesn't want you here with me That's a part of me That wants to stick right with you

But it seems like you dont wanna put up a fight And why should I even try?

Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious You're not changing and I know that you love me but This thing isn't going the way I planned Sometimes we want things That might not be right for us But when you're in love You tend to look over the obvious As bad as I want you to stay We can't keep going on this way Going this way
