

For The Weekend...

Letter Kills

well here's a letter from my thoughts it's the first that i will send i'd like to think this won't ruin anything hurts more to keep it in

and i'm filled with hopes yet not to miss cause this might be to a friend there's just something about you that makes me look again just thinking for the weekend maybe we could be something some thoughts are well worth our time and if we ever find out what this is all about these thoughts were well worth our time our time...oOoOo

i never said i was sorry so many times you can't have your own a suh suh suhsong

it's the first that i will send

that makes me look again...again

some thoughts are well worth our times

so forget about your hesistance these words will walk you through warm memories wrapped in elegance this time...this time i sing to you

maybe we could be something

psssahhhh ahpsssahhhh pssssahhhah (soda-can-opening noise...haha) we never said goodbye you know, we never said goodbye this time, this time, we never said goodbye we know, you know it's all because it's all because of this (?) time
