Letters to Cleo

I was on your side
And I can't believe that it's Coming back to haunt me
You were on that side too
And I can't, no I can't go back
And save you

Why didn't you do as you were told Why didn't you just go home And what'cha got in the bag

Non-recognition

Is the way to keep everything you want to hide You stay on that side now Cause I won't, no I won't go back And bail you out

Closer to the thing we had before And what'cha got in the bag

You were closer than you thought Closer than you thought you'd get Don't you worry that pretty head now Never thought that's what you'd get

Non-recognition

Is the way to keep everything you want to hide You stay on that side now Cause I won't, no I won't go back And bail you out

Why didn't you do as you were told Why didn't you just go home And now you're never coming back

You were closer than you thought Closer than you thought you'd get Don't you worry that pretty head now Never thought that's what you'd get
