

Eyes Waterfalling

Level 42

Let me out to play
Let me find a way - to be
Let me feel the sun
Life has just begun for me

Eyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hears

Laughter all around
It's lonely looking down - from here
Fuel my shallow pride
And teach me how to hide my fear

Eyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hears

They've got control of my life
I can't break away

They've shaped my destiny
No use the boy in me
I go to join my friend
He'll bring me joy again

Eyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hears

I lost control in the night
And drifted away

Eyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hears
