

Don't Keep Me Waiting

Leverage

I have nothing left to say
There's nothing more that I can do
Just staring into emptiness
It's taking me away from you

If you must go
If love is dying
Please let me know
Don't keep me waiting

You say you need some time
You say you need to think things over
Am I just being too blind to see,
That I've lost you to someone else?

If you must go
If love is dying
Please let me know
Just don't keep me waiting
Don't keep me waiting
Don't keep me waiting
Just break my heart
But no more waiting
No more pain
