

Revelation

Leverage

Hey, you genie
I see your plan
My mind and soul are dead tired
Rushing down this road
Not knowing where it's taken me
Trying to catch my breath
To run away
From this evil desire
Or you'll keep pressing me 'til the end

Hey Genie, I've learned you're just a liar
I have done my time
I've served your will
You ask for ever more
Fighting out of your desire
All you have for me it's a tragedy
To ruin my life

Revelation

Long ago
I had sober plans
Ruled my body and my mind
Had no crystal balls,
Looked for no magic carpet rides
Oh, I curse the day I set you free
To walk me into the fire
You'll keep pressing me 'til the end
