

Sails

Leverage

Staring into darkness
Gazing through blood red eyes
At the dark horizon
Praying for the wind to rise

The Captain's born a gambler
To defy his destiny
But now he's standing stranded
With nothing left but will to live

R:
As his ship is scattered on the shore
His fortune washed away
Behind those all-seen eyes he knows
He's about to die in vain

Go find the secrets of the world
Beyond the raging oceans
Sail past the point of no return
The point of no return

Will he try to drift away
When he knows his time's at hand
To be heaved back ashore
To rags and bones in burning sand

R2:
Go find the secrets of the world
Beyond the raging oceans
Sail past the point of no return
Trusting the wind to never turn

R3:
Go find the secrets of the world
Riding the winds of glory
Sail past the point of no return
The point of no return

As his ship is scattered on the shore
His fortune washed away
Envyng his luck-charmed life
The devils of winds cursed his sails
