Leverage

Some said
It's nothing but a story
Some swore
It's all just old man's fairytales
Beware,
She's come to claim her glory
Here comes the stormchild

Behold, the heir of Mother Nature
Dark clouds, her fingers weaving nightmares
Trough the sky
Tiptoe the mountains, dance the sky
Our fate is just a heartbeat away
A heartbeat away

R:
Stormchild
Stormchild
Laughing as she rides the skies
Stormchild
Stormchild
Now the time is here
Better bow in fear before her
Worship the stormchild

Closing in from all directions
The hailing thunder, the roaring wind,
The storming clouds
Steamroll the skies, enrage the waters
And we can only
Watch her play
It's time to pay

R:
Ruler of the skies
Worship the stormchild
Kneel before her might

No need for asking why
Time to live, time to die
Kneel and pray for your poor souls
Storm's rising, you will fall

R:
Ruler of the skies, oh yeah
Worship the stormchild
Kneel before her might, oh yeah
