

Don't Wake Me Up

Lianne La Havas

Don't wake me up
I am
Trying to find you
Oh, as I walk through
You're hiding in my corners of my mind

Never fear, I'll be close behind
My only love, I'll follow behind you
Won't go without you

I know your love weighs
Heavy on my heart
But you are my only counterpart

Will, I know
Why I lost control
Of my heart and soul
Because I know you
I can reach through

I made mistakes
But they're safely behind me
Now I can run free
The only true love I have ever known

Into yours, my life has been thrown
Still, I only think so
It's just the beginning
Sing when you're willing

They say some things
Are better left unsaid
But I'd take my life
To stay in your bed

Will, I know why I lost control
Of my heart and soul
Because I know you
I can reach through

Don't wake me up
Trying to find you
Oh, as I walk through

Will I know
Why I lost control
Of my heart and soul
Because I know you
I can reach through

Don't wake me up
Trying to find you
