Empty

Lianne La Havas

I knew you were empty,
I knew you will always stand still,
I'm alone,
But oh how I've grown

Thought that he'd left me,
Thought that he'd burned out bright,
And I'm alone,
But somehow I'm alright
It seemed so easy,
Just to walk, just to run,
But if you leave me,
I can reappoint myself, with my true love, the one

Just leave town
I can sleep when you're not around
Thought it was myself that I'd found

I knew you were empty,
I knew you will always stand still,
I'm alone,
But oh how I've grown

Thought that he'd left me,
Thought that he'd burned out bright,
And I'm alone,
But somehow I'm alright
It seemed so easy,
Just to walk, just to run,
But if you leave me,
I can reappoint myself, with my true love, the one

Just leave town
I can sleep when you're not around
Thought it was myself that I'd found
I said just leave town
I can sleep when you're not around
Thought it was myself that I'd found
I gotta take another call right now
