I, I'm a waste
And you're gold
I'm not clear why you're here, but you're here
I, I'm a waste. I'm no gold I'm no gold I'm no gold, I'm just lead
You were right

Time that you clear out my clothes and my world I'm insane I would do the same  $\ensuremath{\text{I}}$

You can clear out your heart, I'm unknown to you all it sounds better

Take my word

I poured out pistols to the antlered, all the reindeer, I will kill them all

It goes from this spark to the embers, when the rains came, so the flame goes

You've gotta distort to remember, you might like it, get irregu lar. Too far out

I'm gonna burn you to a cinder, when the rain comes, lay in ash es

Yours
