

Close Your Eyes

Liberty X

Ever wanted to take a ride,
See it from the other side,
Leave reality behind,
For a place called satisfied.

Ever wanted to take a chance,
Be a slave to circumstance,
Let me tie up both your hands,
I'll lead you there.

'Cause you know that I want it,
And you know that I need it,
And you know that I'm feeling
Just you and me, yeah

Closer your eyes
Just for a minute baby,
Fantasize, if you are with it,
There's a paradise,
Where I can give you what you need.

Tell me what are you waiting for,
Put the do not disturb outside the door,
Before the evenings gone,
Gonna turn it on yeah,
Gonna let you count to ten,
To get your breath back again,
And then when you do,
I'll give it to you, yeah

'Cause you know taht I want it,
And you know that I need it,
And you know that I'm feeling it
Just you and me, yeah

I'll give you all the love you need in this world,
I'll take away all the pain, all the hurt,
Baby oh, oh.
