Life In Your Way

The world's best has dragged you through it all
A child of misery and dissolutions
Wading in the sorrows
A benchmark of disappointments
I'll make every effort to carry your burdens
Getting past these trying times so you won't be overthrown
A friend loves at all times
I still care
We'll get through this together
Have you found what you've been looking for?
You're still waiting for more love
I'll be waiting for your roots to flourish once more
And your neglect for vision to be restored
Pushing for time to let go (hours and hours)
It's never easy wanting something more
It's a promise, one you can't out grow
Choices and changes you made
But it's still the same
It's a promise
