We Don't Believe

Life In Your Way

I am among the best and the worst of us And aren't we all trying to put this and that in first place? In first place Even when we don't believe in us, we don't believe in us We look right over the shoulder of a friend (a weakness so selfcontained) To wage a war that has no standing, no lasting value And brutal repercussions that will leave a man alone It's hard to negate what you've known Putting yourself out on the line Even when we don't believe in us This life has a hold of me, to a place where I dare not go Reinstate
