

Slow Motion

Lifehouse

Lost inside your head now
Where you you like to find me
And I'm treading your water
Way out into the deep

Like living in slow motion
Burning out the days are upside down
And my eyes feel just like an ocean
'till you come back
These tears ain't running out

Time is no illusion
Every hour I spend alone

Like living in slow motion
Burning out the days are upside down
And my eyes feel just like an ocean
'till you come back
These tears ain't running out

Like living in slow motion
Burning out the days are upside down
And my eyes feel just like an ocean
'till you come back
These tears ain't running out
