

Today

Lifehouse

I can't remember why my memories fade
Covered by the past that my history's made yesterday
And everything in between has got me thinking about tonight
And everything that I've seen

I'm singing not gonna wait for tomorrow
I'm living today, I'll take it anyway
I'm gonna take it all in the day and I'm gonna be fine
I'll take it anyway 'cause today I'm not afraid to take my time

All of this time is slowly stealing the day
Theres nothing like the feeling that lifes slipping away
Am I the only one under the sun
Who feels like its all over before it's begun?

I'm singing not gonna wait for tomorrow
I'm living today, I'll take it anyway
I'm gonna take it all in the day and I'm gonna be fine
I'll take it anyway 'cause today I'm not afraid to take my time

Forget your problems and ignore your headaches
Just turn up the radio and drive away, I'll take it anyway
I'm gonna take it all in the day and I'm gonna be fine
I'll take it anyway 'cause today I'm not afraid to take my time
My time, my time, my time
