I didn't know you, but I wish I did
These are the moments you're lost inside our heads
And as we hold on, hold onto these days
We try to fall asleep in the beds we've made
So if you're listening, will you still be there with no
song left to sing

And just so you know, just so know
If you ever doubted, your presence
Or how in this world you fit
Remember without you, this song wouldn't exist
And now because of you
I'll never hesitate, I'll take my life on head first
Never looking back again

And when I think about
All of the things that I've missed
I'll never live that way

We'll try to hold on, onto these days
We'll tighten up this grip won't let it slip away
I know you're listening, you will still be here with no

And just so you know, just so know
If you ever doubted, your presence
Or how in this world you fit
Remember without you, this song wouldn't exist
And now because of you
I'll never hesitate, I'll take my life on head first
Never looking back again

Take this hate out of heart
And fill my lungs with your love
I've grown stronger, stronger now

And when fall leaves, They turn to color
We'll wait for an Indian summer
In hopes of hearing your whispers
Keep us warm through every winter
