

The Alphabet Never Really Made Sense To Me

Liferuiner

They said ignorance is bliss
But this heart is shaped like a fist
And will fight till the day I die
For morals you love to hate
Ignorance born inflame

They say living well is the best revenge
Then my life will be your end

This is me showing the world
The truth
Me moving on, is enough proof
Your words can't break integrity

Many have tried and many have failed
Your empty threats
Like your friends
Have bailed

You've checked your convictions at the fucking door
And lost this war of life to your addictions

This is my life
This is my pledge
This is straight fucking edge
