

Haircuts and T-Shirts

Lifetime

Hair cuts and tee-shirts
You're made in the shade
Airports and "hey your luggage?"
Ain't quite the same
What ever happened to what's her name
She's all books and quotations
And no fun and games

It feels so good but you don't dare believe it
Don't you believe it
Don't you believe it

When it's quiet and lights are low
You're the last one you want around
You're the last one to know
Cuz it's over you know when I said
Its time to go now don't let things go to your head
Its over won't you come over
The lights are low at my place too
But the stereos gonna change your mood

It feels so good but you don't dare believe it
Don't you believe it
Don't you believe it

You're the only one for me
(I told you already)
You're the only one for me
(I told you already)
