Don't be blind In all the fated life Something great is happening in your life But all the noise Is drowning out your voice No wonder you've been feeling down From time to time You know that you'll survive The day you realise You can't stop day from turning into night Hey, you know you're gonna live To find another day, It's just today things ain't so good. Get yourself back again, You've got so much love That you can't afford to lose Goodbye Heartbreak Don't look for me 'Cause I don't need you now So long heartache Don't look for me 'Cause I don't need you now. I don't need you now Hey. Do you remember as a girl, You had a picture of the world And you'd think about the great things you would find? The thing is 9 to 5 And a struggle to survive Ain't exactly what you had in mind. But that's the beauty of life, It takes a while to find, And you can't have things your own way all the time Hey, you know you're gonna live To find another day, It's just today things ain't so good. Get yourself back again, You've got so much love That you can't afford to lose Goodbye Heartbreak

Don't look for me
'Cause I don't need you now
So long heartache
Don't look for me
'Cause I don't need you now
I don't need you now

I don't need you now
I don't need you now
Hey
I don't need you now
I don't need you now
I don't need you now
Hey

Goodbye Heartbreak
Don't look for me
'Cause I don't need you now
So long heartache
Don't look for me
'Cause I don't need you now
I don't need you now
I don't need you now...
Ain't so good
That you can afford
