

The Pity Scene

Lights

I've come to realize that you've made up too many excuses
And I've come to see that I'm in this alone
You were only there when you wanted and I'm delirious
I'm at my wits end
And you're ignorant to refuse it
I don't understand why I'm in this alone
You were only there when you wanna be
And I'm delirious

Where's your heart in this matter?
Black turns grey ahead, ahead
I played my part if it matters
And it's clear that I care too much today

And I've come to realize that I'm over you and your excuses
And I'm glad to see I made it alone
You were only there when you wanted
And I hope you're hearing this

Where's your heart in this matter?
Black turns grey ahead, ahead
I played my part if it matters
And it's clear that I care too much today

Ohh, I
Oh, I care too much today
Ohh, I
Oh, I
I care too much today
