

Hearts Review

Lil B

Hello, hello, welcome
Hey, my friends, now
I guess Lil B has to tell you something
Before we end the day!

I'm a keep you realer about my heart review
Gimmie a five star weighting, up in the car rating
Uh, feel me, I got the patience
Don't make me twist that butt I call waiting
Waiting on the streets, how I handle
How I set examples, my heart burns strong
I still can't burn no candles, flashbacks
Corner blocks, corner on the block
Pointing out liquor and shots, cause my nigga got shot
How the fuck I'm gonna take that shot?
Can't even stun me, nigga
Can't even smoke a blunt!
Try to hide away the pain,
I will smoke it for months
To say the smoke used to be a thug
I won't hurt myself because the pain and the drug
Everybody forgive me, my life mission's
To keep this shit going man, why the fuck I'm living?
It's history, man staying with the vision
Keeping, pimping, setting in examples
Humble, humble, humble
I'm so glad that I'm gifted
Keep this shit opened for real
This shit is in my description!
Lil B, this my hearts review
I'm awkward, but how are you?
I'm awkward, but are you too?
Let's think about my hearts review!
