Lil Eddie

[Verse 1:]

Tell me this
Am I tripping?
I could have sworn
I just saw some other dude
Kiss you right on your lips
Didn't know I was watching
From the corner all alone
Got me seeing
Double visions
Let me catch my breath before
I go and do
Something I'm gonna regret
Hope homey really was worth it
Cause now you're losing your man

[Bridge:]

I didn't mean to do it
But now you're out in the night baby
Would've never thought
That a chick like you could've done me dirty
Since you're showing me the truth
I can play this game with you
Get ready cause girl this one is for you

[Chorus:]

You're the next one up
Thought you were on my team
But now I see
You're the next one up
Nothing different about ya
I don't need ya
Typical of you I know
Your game is gettin' old
It's a must your time is up
You're the next one up
You're the next one up
Out with the old
In with the new mummy
You're the next one up
Through with the lies now
Ain't no need for speaking
Typical of you I know
It's a must your time is up
You're the next one up

[Verse 2:]

Should I listen
To my suspicion
Gave you the benifit
Of my every doubt
When sorry came out your mouth
Believed you every second
You deserve an oscar girl
For your actin'
So dramatic

Learnt your tactics
Studied you like
I was at school
Can't pull a trick on me
So how about you just save it
And not tell me anything

[Bridge:]

Since you're showing me the truth

[Chorus:]

You're the next one up
Thought you were on my team
But now I see
You're the next one up
Nothing different about ya
Typical of you I know
It's a must your time is up

You're the next one up
Out with the old
