Lil Eddie

We though of different ways to relight the fire
Worked few times before
Little we knew it was only half the battle
It was way more to endure
Agreed to never stop and go the distance
Love without a heart
That flowing feeling on an air balloon just
Ain't there between us

Listen, in our hour blessed us
That'll do for us
We just can't seem to repair this
Forget that touch
Like the sun in the sky
If I escape when I look in your eyes
I can't face you and say goodbye
It's never easy

So I'll just send you a postcard
By the time you receive it
I bet I'm on your 'hate you' list
Send you a postcard
Hope you can read it
Cause my teardrops ran and blurred the ink
Send it on a postcard
Give it a shot
My mind is sure
But my heart is not
This is so hard, to be so far
P.S. with a lipstick kiss
Send it on a postcard

So keep telling each other it will get better
But I still feel the weight
It's heavy on my brain like a thousand tons of Falling hail, it rained
The miles we went to get is up a twisted
Now would that get it again
The wind's too strong to hold us any longer
When it's over, it's over

Listen, in our hour blessed us
That'll do for us
We just can't seem to repair this
Forget that touch
Like the sun in the sky
If I escape when I look in your eyes
I can't face you and say goodbye
It's never easy

So I'll just send you a postcard
By the time you receive it
I bet I'm on your 'hate you' list
Send you a postcard
Hope you can read it

Give it a shot
My mind is sure
But my heart is not

I want you to know
When the plane took off
I was wishing that I had a parachute
Cause there was one side of my head
Screaming feelings of a breath and I saw the truth
We can start over new
You know what comes next when we do
We make the same U-turn that led us both stranded here

So I'll just send you a postcard
By the time you receive it
I bet I'm on your 'hate you' list
Send you a postcard
Hope you can read it
Give it a shot
My mind is sure
But my heart is not

Oh, no, no, no, I'll
Yes, I know I was kinda wrong
Send it on a postcard
Cause I couldn't look at you
And tell you it's over, no, no
