

Thought U Were Mine

Lil Eddie

Oooh Ooooh Ooooh Ooooh,
Ooh wa wa wa wa wa,
Oooh wa...

Nowadays I can hardly sleep,
So I stay up,
Listenin' to old school on my record player,
Those sad love songs to get you through being alone,
How I wish that you were here...

Tryin' to erase the picture from my brain cause
Seeing you with him
I'm thinking is this insane Oooh,
Really caught me off guard,
To know that we were rocking hard
Wake me up from this nightmare...

Describe,
What makes him better than I?
Why why why why why why Why (Why),
Can't it be me and just only me?
Oh Oh Oh Oh...

I thought you were mine.
What made you think I was fine?
How could you fall for another guy?
Run off and pushed me to the side,
My dear...

Lord,
We both knew you were mine,
Guess you were all a disguise,
I say I couldn't believe my eyes,
I gave it one day at a time baby
Thought we both knew you were mine.

Tell me is this the way you had it set up
While you were looking from a jump
And thought I'd never,
Found out about you two
What a stupid thing to do,
Hold hands with him in public...

When all of my friends knew we were together,
You really must have thought that you were pretty clever,
Were you even surprised,
Oh, you cheated and your lies,
Came back girl,
You're so full of it...

Describe, what makes him better than I.
Why, why, why, why, why, why.
Why can't it just be me and only me.
I thought you were mine.
What make you think I was fine.
How could you fall for another guy.
Right off, and pushed me aside, my dear.

I thought we both knew you were mine.
I guess you were all a disguise.
I said I couldn't believe my eyes.
I gave it one day and I lost my baby
Thought we both knew you were mine.

Oh baby, I'm just over my head.
On the situation that's at hand.
I guess we never made it official.
But it don't give you the right to dismiss the issue.
Go ahead, throw away all the things I said.
But when I told you that you got the key to my heart,
I never thought we would be apart.

I thought you were mine.
What make you think I was fine.
How could you fall for another guy.
Right off, and pushed me aside, my dear.

I thought we both knew you were mine.
I guess you were all a disguise.
I said I couldn't believe my eyes.
I gave it one day and I lost my baby
Thought we both knew you were mine.
