

You Know Who You Are

Lil Eddie

Another day go by now
Time really flies
Time really flies
The other day used to sing about 99 99
We were just outta high school
Look at me looking like Michael
Our break-up anniversary was 4 days ago

[Chorus:]

This is for the one that I feel she broke my heart
Even though you left me stronger wishing for a brand new start
So when you hear us on the radio know I still got love for you
Smile cause you left a mark
I am not saying your name
Cause you know you know you know who you are

Those days always bring a tear in my eye
In a private room I still feel alone inside
Millions of pretty faces around the world but no one steals the title of you girl
And thats my word, thats my word, yeah, said thats my word...

[Chorus:]

This is for the one that I feel she broke my heart
Even though you left me stronger wishing for a brand new start
So when you hear us on the radio know I still got love for you
Smile cause you left a mark
I am not saying your name
Cause you know you know you know who you are

Past is still the same
See your face everyday
Things will never changing
You just stay in my head
Yeah every play is how we used to stay in bed
How we played
Now we moved on the stairs still have too much to say

Now can you hear what your heart yeah this one here is for you
Oh yeah this here is your song so shorty bump up the tune
You still have a place in my life
Even though you are gone

No need to mention your name girl you know who you are
I remember our first valentine's day
French kiss let the crush on a six train
Said you was shy let it fly on a wall
If you can tell it all you said you were pretty comfortable
[?] The way you do Coming back to you
You are like Could I let you go
After all these years you are still the one
Is unforgettable

[Chorus:]

This is for the one that I feel she broke my heart
Even though you left me stronger wishing for a brand new start
So when you hear us on the radio know I still got love for you

I am not saying your name
Cause you know you know you know who you are

[Chorus:]

This is for the one that I feel she broke my heart
Even though you left me stronger wishing for a brand new start
So when you hear us on the radio know I still got love for you
Smile cause you left a mark
I am not saying your name
Cause you know you know you know who you are
